

KIDVENTURE Rules & Guidelines

1. No practical jokes/pranks.
2. Campers must treat all other campers and camp leadership with kindness and respect.
3. No going into or playing around doors / windows of cabins other than your own. So, no boys in girl cabins or girls in boy cabins.
4. EVERYONE will wear life jackets. (They are provided by camp.)
5. No bad language.
6. Everyone will participate in all activities. If we are too tired to participate, unfortunately we are too tired to stay at camp.
7. No fighting. Period. You will be sent home.
8. No PDAs, unless you are married. (And even then EEEWWWW!)
9. Every camper will shower EVERY day. (No, swimming does not count)
10. When adult counselors turn off the lights at 11:00 lights out, there is NO more talking or noise. We have to get rest so we feel awesome for the next day's activities.
11. We don't have any maids or fairies to clean up. You will need to clean up your own place at the table & help make sure area is clean. This needs to happen BEFORE you go on to the next activity. You will be sharing the shower areas with 20 people, so you have to take your own stuff to & from. You will have a little area to keep your suitcase & stuff. In other words "PICK UP YOUR DIRTY DRAAWS"! 😊
12. Each camper will eat something at EVERY meal. You will have your own water bottle with your name. You will be encouraged to drink, and drink, and drink.
13. Everyone will be in groups of 2 or more and within eyeshot of a counselor or a designated Jr. counselor at ALL times. No wandering. We stay together ALL the time.
14. All medicine will be kept by our camp nurse. We will have all over the counter meds too.
15. There is to be NO food in suitcases or in cabins. We don't like bugs!
16. In order to keep everyone safe, all campers MUST follow directions and stay with their groups.
17. Bring your best attitude & be ready for an awesomely fun time!
